

Swanland Neighbourhood Watch Meeting
19 October 2017

PCSOs Barbara Danby and Steve Lynch were unable to attend due to their duty rosters.

A new street coordinator has been recruited for Kemp Road (top end)

Reports of incidents

Dale Road – a car had been found parked outside a house with its door left open and no-one nearby. Owner subsequently moved it.

Dower Rise – a cold caller had been in the road despite it being a No Cold Calling Zone

Bogus calls suggesting problems with Microsoft programmes on computers had been received.

Inconsiderate parking was reported in Northdale Park; this could cause problems for emergency services etc.

There had been theft of a Blue Badge in Wood View, early August

*Reminder to report any suspicious activity straight away on 101 or via Humberside Police Website.

Police reports

The latest 'crime maps' on www.police.uk, up to September 2017 were used to produce a list of crimes reported in Swanland. No further information was available.

Feedback from the last meeting

The No Cold Calling and Neighbourhood Watch signs in On Hill had been re-instated.

Speeding complaints: the Parish Council had not had any success in getting further double yellow lines in the Tranby Lane/Humberdale Close area, near the school, nor in getting a school crossing patrol.

Matters to report

East Yorkshire Matters:

Information noted regarding:

- Immobilise – scheme to register phones, valuables etc
- PREY – software to allow you to trace stolen laptops

- The Herbert Protocol – re keeping information on a vulnerable relative, neighbour, friend in case they go missing to assist in searching for them etc.
- Yellow Dog Scheme – yellow ribbon used to warn that a dog needs to be given some space.
- Online crime prevention shop created by Hull Neighbourhood Networks – to buy eg credit and debit card protectors, discount code for EY NHW group members.
